

Arcadia, South Beach vacation condos, South Beach accomodations

The Arcadia building incredible location made it one of the most popular Miami Beach vacation rentals. The building was fully renovated in 2006; its location is just perfect, just across Flamingo Park. This historic art deco building seats on a beautiful street filled with trees. This building is typical of streamlined building directly inspired by art deco ships of the 30's. In the center part of the Arcadia, between the 2 buildings there is a charming court yard, which brings a serene atmosphere. The building is secured with fences for your comfort; its entrance is secured by a locked entrance. Guests can take advantage of the Flamingo Park which offers numerous tennis courts, nice parks and 2 super pools. Lincoln road is at a 6 minute walk from this Miami Beach vacation building, guests can walk also to the beach. Nested in the heart of the art deco district, guests will take advantage of what South Beach has to offer as far as entertainments. Contact Us
